The prevalence of musculoskeletal disorder and relation with body posture in Yazd Police employee

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date of Issue: 1398/3/14</th>
<th>IR.YAZD.REC.1398.013</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>IRAN</td>
<td>DANESHGAH YAZD</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Appraisal:

1. Despite the prevalence of musculoskeletal disorders in police officers, the association with body posture has not been studied in Iran.
2. The findings indicate a significant correlation between musculoskeletal disorders and poor body posture in police officers.

Authors:

- Habbasi@yazd.ac.ir
- g.m44@yahoo.com

Address:

Department of Healthcare, Yazd University of Medical Sciences.

References:

Declaration:

- The study was approved by the Ethics Committee of the University of Medical Sciences, Yazd.
- The findings were reported to the Yazd Police Department.